

Call for Papers!

Firearm Violence and Mental Health

Guest Editors:

Beth Bonham, PhD, RN, PMHCNS-BC, FAAN, and Daryl Sharp, PhD, RN, FAAN

Archives of Psychiatric Nursing is searching for submissions on mental health as related to the lived experience, consequences and research on firearms violence.

Articles may address firearm violence experience from scholarly, poetry, personal, justice involvement, legislative, and policy perspectives. The topic of firearm violence affects many sensibilities and to that end, we anticipate a special issue that presents the topic from many viewpoints.

Submissions Timeline:

Submissions Deadline: March 1, 2023

Please feel free to contact the guest editors of this special issue with questions or if intending to submit.

- Beth Bonham, PhD, RN, PMHCNS-BC, FAAN – mbethbonham@coopsone.com
- Daryl Sharp, PhD, RN, FAAN – Daryl_Sharp@urmc.rochester.edu

Learn more about the benefits of publishing in a special issue: <https://www.elsevier.com/authors/submit-your-paper/special-issues>

Interested in becoming a guest editor? Discover the benefits of guest editing a special issue and the valuable contribution that you can make to your field: <https://www.elsevier.com/editors/role-of-an-editor/guest-editors>